

A big thanks to all of you for your positive feedback so far on our Level 1 Safeguarding training.

Could you please take 5 mins to look over the following questions. Answer as honestly as possible as this will help us prepare for future training.

1. What did you like most about this training?

I found the training really interesting it certainly opened my eyes! All the information was thoroughly explained

2. What aspects of the training could be improved?

I don't feel like any training needed to be improved other than more time!

3. How do you hope to change your practice as a result of this training?

My hope is to make sure the children are safe at all times. And to recognise any problems with children that may occur.

4. What additional safeguarding areas would you like to have training on in the future?

Any that's offered or relevant.

would like to learn as much as possible.
